

GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE FORCES IN CONTROL OF CONVENTION BY CLOSE VOTE

BALL IS ELECTED TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

Issue Between Opposing Factions Decided by Close Vote of 109 to 105

CHAIRMAN ASKS FOR PARTY UNITY

Contest for Head of Republicans Sessions Waged During the Day

By a vote of 109 to 105 Dr. C. D. Ball was elected temporary chairman of the Republican county convention this afternoon, over J. S. Howard of Anaheim. By that vote, the Good Government League forces were shown to be in control of the convention.

All day long, the contest for the temporary chairmanship has been waged on the streets. No one knew what the result would be, that close was it.

The "regulars" lined up behind Howard. Dr. Ball made his fight on the "harmony" ground that both factions would be recognized in the appointment of committees.

Precincts that voted solidly for Ball were Bolsa, Delhi, El Modena, El Toro, Laguna, Newport Beach, Orange, Placentia, San Joaquin, Santa Ana Nos. 2, 3, 4, 6, 8 and 10, Tustin, West Orange and Westminster.

Those solid for Howard were Anaheim No. 1, Fullerton Nos. 1 and 2, Huntington Beach, La Habra, Newport, Olive, Orange No. 1, San Juan, Silverado, Santa Ana Nos. 1, 7 and 9, West Anaheim and Yorba. Other precincts were divided.

The fight for control of the central committee will be close.

J. S. Howard, chairman of the central committee, called the convention to order, and N. A. Elm, secretary, read the call as adopted several weeks ago by the central committee.

Lew H. Wallace of Newport Beach nominated Dr. C. D. Ball for temporary chairman, saying it was in the interests of harmony to name him, a man broad enough to recognize all factions.

F. C. Spencer of Anaheim nominated J. S. Howard of Anaheim. He said the north end of the county deserves recognition.

"He is a true, faithful, regular Republican," said Spencer. "He is anxious for harmony."

Nominations were closed and the vote called by precincts showed Ball 109, Howard 105.

R. Y. Williams and F. C. Spencer were appointed by Chairman Howard to escort Dr. Ball to the chair. Amid applause Dr. Ball was introduced by Judge Howard.

"It was not personal ambition that induced me to seek this position," said Dr. Ball, "but it was to do something to bring together in this county the two factions of the party. Judge Howard would have done all he could for harmony, as I will do."

"The insurgent movement in this county has nothing to do with the insurgent movement in the east. Here we are satisfied with the tariff."

Dr. Ball highly praised the work of Frank Flint and S. C. Smith in congress, and urged the convention to give them unqualified thanks.

"We Republicans are in the majority in this county and the Democrats have more confidence in us than they have in themselves. When we go to the ballot let us put our mark in that little ring and vote the ticket straight from Johnson down to the township constable."

Dr. Ball appointed the following committees:

Resolutions—Lew Wallace, R. Y. Williams, G. W. Moore, F. C. Spencer, A. H. Bibber.

Credentials—N. A. Elm, Perry Lewis.

Richardson a Winner and Makes Statement

BERKELEY, Aug. 27. (Special to the Register)—Friend Wm. Richardson feels certain that he has the Republican nomination for Superintendent of State Printing and announces a few reforms that he will undertake, if elected, that will stir up things. He proposes to put the ink, paper and supply trust out of business or make it sell to the state as cheaply as to the private printing houses. He also announces that he will use his best endeavor to reduce the cost of school books and other state printing. In an announcement today he said:

"During the primary campaign I have refrained from criticizing the management of the state printing office but now that the incumbent is defeated and I am a candidate for the office I feel it my duty to the people to announce the policy I will pursue if elected."

F. W. Richardson Republican Nominee for State Printer

"I became a candidate for the nomination at the urgent solicitation of my friends and because I thought I could make a record in the office which would bring credit to my supporters and honor to myself. I have made no promises or pledges. If elected I will go into the office free to do my whole duty. Employees will be required to give the state a fair day's work for a fair wage. No drunkenness or incompetents will be tolerated. I will employ the best workmen I can find."

"There is a general complaint of the high cost of state printing. Nearly every department of the state has found that private firms do printing at from twenty-five to fifty per cent cheaper than the state printing office does it. The whispered excuse for this has been to blame the unions. I think this is unfair. The scale of wages around the bay is higher than the scale in Sacramento and still printing can be done here much cheaper than at the state printing office. This brushes away that falacy."

"In estimating the cost of state printing the law provides that overhead expenses, deterioration of plant and interest on investment shall not be counted. Hence it will be seen that the state printing office if properly and economically administered should do printing cheaper than private printing houses. The state printing office charges for material and labor only, and hence should do printing much cheaper than it does. If the state printing office cannot do the state's printing cheaper than private concerns it should go out of business."

"The cost of state text books is entirely too high and I shall use my best endeavor to reduce it. Every parent feels this heavy burden. My first work will be to require honest competition among the supply houses and as low prices for the state as for outside printing houses. I will have no pet ink houses, paper firms or bindery supply concerns. All will have an opportunity to compete."

"I will demand a fair deal for the state, both in price and quality. I believe a great saving can be effected in the cost of printing reduced. I propose to demand the same efficiency and economy in the state printing office that I do in my printing plant here in Berkeley."

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION HELD TODAY GOT FINLEY INTO RACE FOR ASSEMBLY

Delegates to State Convention Elected—
Olinda Democrats Mamed a Republican Delegation

The Democratic county convention held at Spurgeon's Hall this morning brought out eighty delegates out of the 141 provided for in the call. The feature of the convention was the announcement by Col. S. H. Finley that he accepted the nomination for assemblyman and would do what he could to land the office for the Democracy.

There was talk in the hall from the time the first delegates arrived to the effect that a number of delegates had been elected who were in fact registered as Republicans. If this is true the credentials committee failed to find them out, except in the case of the Olinda delegation, every member of which is conceded to be a straight-out Republican.

The Olinda delegation did not appear, and there seems to have been no question that the Republicans elected as delegates to the Democratic convention had nothing to do with their choice. It was a mere accident that the Republicans were showed in.

The endorsement of the convention was given only to those county officers who are known to be Democrats, and not to the Republicans who received votes enough in the Democratic primaries to have their names go on the Democratic ticket.

Call to Order
Dr. Gordon, chairman of the county central committee, called the meeting to order, and Secretary C. D. Overshiner read the call for the convention.

D. W. McDannald offered a resolution on order of business, which was adopted.

Dr. Gordon announced that the delegates at today's convention are also delegates to the convention to be held in May, 1912, which convention shall elect delegates to the state convention, which shall elect delegates to the 1912 national convention.

E. J. Marks of Fullerton was unanimously elected permanent chairman of the convention, and D. W. McDannald of Berrydale secretary. These officers are to hold over as permanent officers for the May, 1912 county convention.

Dr. Gordon moved that a committee of three be appointed on credentials. "This is necessary," said Dr. Gordon, "for we find in one precinct that every delegate elected is a straight-out Republican."

Dr. Gordon and Dr. Menges of Santa Ana and J. J. Schneider of Placentia were appointed on credentials.

W. T. Brown of Fullerton and W. H. Bentley of Westminster were appointed as the committee on resolutions.

"I move we take ten minutes recess to give the credentials committee time to check out the Republicans in the lists returned from the primaries," moved Dr. Gordon. The motion carried.

"If there are any Republican delegates here now, I should state that they can attend the Republican convention this afternoon," suggested Dr. Gordon.

MRS FRENCH HOT ON HEINZES TRAIL

Threatens to Produce Letters
That Will Implicate Well Known People

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Declaring that if she so desired she could bring into undesired prominence several well known people, and hinting at the possibility that she might be forced to do this by the failure of F. Augustus Heinze, the copper millionaire, to respond to her suit, Mrs. Lillian Hobart French, a Butte divorcee, said today that she intends publishing additional love letters alleged to have come from Heinze.

Process servers are out today serving papers in the French suit for the recovery of $25,000 worth of copper mining stock certificates. Mrs. French said:

"Heinze referred to me as 'that woman.' Well he must have liked 'that woman' to write one fifty love letters couched most endearingly. I intend to see that he makes good. I have love letters and papers showing up Heinze at the time I was closely acquainted with him. They bring in many well known names. I don't want to injure innocent persons, unless I find it necessary."

Letters beginning, "My Dear Little Slob," "Dear Little Puss" were published yesterday by Mrs. French, following her accusations against Heinze. One letter dated Butte, October 29, 1905, describes the writer's loneliness away from "Dear Little Puss," and said:

"When night and bedtime comes it doesn't seem much use going to bed."

One letter tells Mrs. French to get pretty but quiet dresses, because the writer "Loves to see you dressed prettily."

The writer also advises her to get "little prayer rugs," though not silk ones, because "they don't make such a handsome effect."

MORRIS LENNESON SLEW SELF ON NEWS OF STRIKE

Union Refused to Agree to Leaders Compromise on Closed Shop Basis

CHEYENNE, Aug. 27.—Long before Colonel Roosevelt's special reached Cheyenne, the stage was all set for the greatest day in Cheyenne's history. Cowboys galloped the streets, ponies were tethered everywhere, and the reception committee lined up in the station. Before the train arrived, the parade of soldiers, cowboys, cowgirls and civic societies was ready to move past the stand from which Roosevelt spoke. The reviewing stand had been erected in front of the state capitol, and 5000 regulars, 1500 cowboys and cowgirls, thousands of ordinary citizens passed in the parade. After the parade came luncheon, then the real program began.

Before the great audience Colonel Roosevelt made a speech. Later contests of every description were on the program—rope twirling, fancy shooting, spectacular riding by cowgirls, military maneuvers by Fort Russell troops, pony races for ladies, and scores of others.

Before reaching Cheyenne a message was handed Roosevelt on the train saying the people of Nassau county had already elected him delegate to the New York Republican convention to be held at Saratoga. Roosevelt smiled when he read the message.

Senators Borah and Warren greeted Roosevelt when the train arrived. A cowboy escort on prancing ponies, surrounded the big touring car in which Roosevelt rode to the reviewing stand. The parade began to pass as soon as Roosevelt had entered the stand. After luncheon, the Colonel was escorted to Frontier Park for the afternoon program.

Colonel Roosevelt refused to discuss an editorial in the New York Evening Post attacking the Colonel's western speeches.

"I have nothing to say today," said Roosevelt. "This is the kind of an attack to be expected the Post, of course, would make as soon as a genuine, practical movement for decent, clean politics was attempted in New York."

"The Post charged that Roosevelt posed as a corporation hater in order to make the corporations contribute funds for a third term election in 1912."

Roosevelt said he would make a full reply as soon as he had time to consider the matter carefully.

FLOURING MILLS MUST STOP BLEACHING FLOUR

SEATTLE, Aug. 27.—The flouring mills in the state of Washington will from today cease bleaching flour, as the result of orders from State Dairy and Food Commissioner Davis, who declared the bleaching process injurious to the public health. The commissioner allows millers thirty days in which to dispose of the flour on hand.

POMONA GROCER COMMITTS SUICIDE

Edward Devalon Throws Self
Under Southern Pacific
Limited

POMONA, Cal., Aug. 27.—Edward Devalon, a well known grocer, aged 47, suicided at 11 o'clock this morning, throwing himself under a Southern Pacific limited in the railroad yards. He was fearfully mangled. He tried to suicide early this morning by inhaling gas from the stove. He was found unconscious lying across the stove but was restored by stimulants. He went down town with his brother-in-law and ran to the railroad yards when his brother-in-law went into a store, leaving him in the buggy. No reason is assigned for the deed.

CRIPPEN AND MISS LENEVE'S ARRIVAL

Vast Crowd Awaited Them at Liverpool—Police Erected
Barricades

LONDON, Aug. 27.—An attempt to lynch Dr. Crippen was made this afternoon when Crippen and Miss Leneve arrived in London. A great crowd at the railroad station broke through the police guard and rushed for the accused man. Crippen cowed beside Detective Dew, as Sergeant Mitchell appealed to the crowd to protect the prisoner. By a desperate effort the police succeeded in driving back the mob.

Barricade Built at Liverpool
LIVERPOOL, Aug. 27.—Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve, with police escort under Inspector Dew, reached Liverpool via the steamer Megantic today. A great crowd that had waited at the pier since 4 o'clock this morning, became so unruly that the police were forced to erect barricades to prevent any interfering with the transfer of the prisoners to the shore.

Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve were allowed a short rest before starting to London. They will get a preliminary hearing before Judge Sir Albert Duputizon in the Bow street police court shortly.

PRICE OF APRICOTS TO BE 11 CENTS AFTER SEPT. 1

The Board of Directors of the Orange County Dried Fruit Association met at the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday. The main subject of discussion was the advance in price to be made on apricots. About fifteen stockholders who were present participated in the discussion. It was reported that one of our members had been offered 10 1/2 cents by a local buyer, while last week 10 cents had been offered to growers in Ventura, many of whom are holding for 12 cents. With the tendency of the price undoubtedly upward the directors felt justified in passing the following resolution:

"Resolved, By the Board of Directors that, whereas, those of our members who wished to sell early and at 10 cents per pound have now had an opportunity to do so at intervals for over a month, we do now offer the fruit of our members who have not yet sold (excepting, however, those who are holding for a higher price), at 11 cents per pound, to take effect Sept. 1, 1910."

"We believe that the price should soon be advanced to 12 cents a pound."

It was ascertained that the bulk of the dried apricots has already passed into the hands of the buyers. Many of the members have sold and some have not yet reported their sales to the secretary. On motion, the board passed the following resolution:

Presidential Race

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—A suicide, pistol fights and rioting marked the resumption today of the cloakmakers' strike, just when the leaders of the employees and the employers were announcing that hostilities were suspended, expecting to resume work Monday.

The renewed trouble was the result of the objection of strikers to their leaders' proposals that the union concede the closed shop contention. So bitter was the feeling against the men who suggested that basis for compromise that Treasurer Lennon, who announced the plan to the strikers was driven from the speaking hall.

Morris Lennson, a cloak maker, on hearing that work would not be resumed, killed himself. His funds were exhausted as a result of lack of work and the man became desperate.

to notify the secretary for what price they are holding their fruit, in order that the directors may be enabled to advance wisely and cautiously.

"Those members who have sold their fruit are requested to remit to our secretary, as promptly as possible, their assessment, and also their membership fee if not yet paid."

Each member can readily compute the amount of his assessment, remembering that it is at the rate of 50 cents per ton or 5 cents on each 200 pounds. A few growers who have not yet become members of the association appreciate, nevertheless, the work of the association in obtaining for them a much better price than they would otherwise have received, to such an extent that they volunteered to pay the assessment in order to help pay the expenses of the association. This is as it should be. It may be said that there is hardly an apricot grower who does not recognize and acknowledge the benefit he has received through the association. This is very encouraging for the next year.

The committees appointed to investigate plans and methods for pursuing the work of the association for the coming year reported progress.

Checks can be made payable to A. C. Tiede, secretary, or to the Orange County Dried Fruit Association. Address A. C. Tiede, secretary, Santa Ana, Cal.

We Are Going

Sure, We Are Going to Move

The Reasons For This

- 2nd. Our prices are always so close that we can't cut them.
- 3d. Our customers are used to getting FIRST QUALITY always, and we can't afford to make a "run" on poor quality goods.
- 4th. There's no need of a sale on our part—business is growing and everybody satisfied.

What We Are Going to Do

- 1st. We're going to move into the Opera House block, store just vacated by the Horton-Spurgeon Furniture Co.
- 2nd. We're going to fit this store up with modern sanitary fixtures.
- 3d. We're going to increase our stocks, both in variety and quantity.
- 4th. We're going to adopt new methods and systems in order to serve our patrons and the general public more acceptably than ever.

Notes On My European Trip

(By C. A. Gustlin)

ARTICLE II: AND NOW FOR EUROPE!

At last we board the magnificent Lusitania, which was to carry us safely across the great Atlantic, and at the same time break all former speed records. We made the voyage, distance calculated from Sandy Hook to Daunt's Rock just off Queens-town, in four days, twenty hours and twenty-two minutes. Although our passage was not an especially smooth one, we both escaped the unpleasantness of sea-sickness and enjoyed all the luxuries that the service afforded. Our landing was made at Liverpool, from which place we took a special train for London. This ride afforded us our first glimpse of foreign life and landscape. The day was gray and the long stretches of country estates, with occasional woods and old mansions, looked sombre and lifeless. We reached London in the evening, and after being awkwardly hustled about in a transfer cab from one station to another, the meanwhile enjoying watching the hurry-scurry of this great old city, we took the train for Harwich, where we cross the channel to Hook of Holland. Arriving in the morning early, we had customs examination, and left at once for Berlin, which we reached in the evening. The ride of that day was not of exceptional interest, excepting as we passed through Holland, with all its canals, little pastures and garden spots; its quaintly costumed people, its old, thatched-roof cottages, its cattle and windmills.

As we neared Berlin it began to snow, and the beautiful sight of it in the long wide streets, on the houses and trees, everywhere, and all aglisten under the brilliant light of thousands of gas-lamps, will never leave my memory.

We found a comfortable hotel on Unter den Linden, and after a week's diligent search, we were located in an excellent Pension. Meanwhile, however, owing to our inability to speak the language, we had many amusing and, to us, even tragic experiences. We soon found ourselves obliged to eat automatically; that is to say, we dined in restaurants that were operated in a slot-machine way. We dropped the coin in the slot and took out what we wanted, meats, vegetables, deserts, etc.

After we were finally permanently located, I immediately began my piano study under the renowned pianist and teacher, Alberto Jonas, whose early training was received in the famous Paris Conservatory. He was later one of the few pupils of Rubenstein. He justly possesses an enviable reputation in the musical world as a conscientious and efficient teacher. His pupils are much sought after in the larger conservatories of this country. Pepito Ariola, the wonderful child-prodigy, who last year astonished America with his great genius, is a pupil of Jonas. All my piano work abroad was under the direct supervision of Jonas, although I might say that I studied with all the greatest pianists of Europe, for the privilege of hearing them repeatedly, observing their interpretation, their style, studying closely their technique, etc., was of enormous value to me. With many I came in close personal touch, and derived in this way many valuable ideas and suggestions.

Never did Berlin have a greater concert season than during my first winter there. Scores of the world's most renowned artists, singers, pianists, organists, violinists, etc., appeared that season. There was music of every description, much wonderful orchestral and chamber music, opera, oratorio, etc.; that I reveled in it goes without saying; but it was, at the same time, very strenuous work, and, like hundreds of others, I overdid a little.

Most unfortunately, our good friend Woodford was, meanwhile, not having the happiest of happy times. The rawness of Berlin's winter climate and he did not harmonize. Many hard colds seized upon him, and, with little else to do, he pondered freely on the ills and vicissitudes of life. The fact that he spoke no German did not better the situation. The porcelain, tombstone-like German heaters succeeded better in raising his temper than his temperature. Home never seemed so far away. So at last he vowed a vow to take the Mauritania on her first spring voyage westward. This he did, only to experience one of the severest storms at sea ever known, and which threatened even this hugest of liners with disaster. His description of that voyage and the havoc which the storm wrought, with ship and crew, is hair-raising.

The following summer I took a short vacation, visiting many places of interest in the immediate vicinity of Berlin; also art galleries and museums in the city. I also spent a few days in the charming city of Dresden, with side trips up and down the Elbe. This is a most picturesque section of Germany, and is called the Saxon Switzerland. The Saxons themselves are a genial, warm-hearted, hospitable people.

Returning to Berlin I resumed my work, and also became much interested in the vocal art. I had met the great American basso of the Berlin Royal Opera, Putnam Griswold, and later became associated with Franz Emerich and Richard Lowe, very prominent opera coaches and teachers. Later I assisted Madame Mackenzie Wood, an American woman, who has very deservedly won a high place among Berlin voice teachers. She was long a pupil of the great Delle Sedie, and is an exponent of the pure old Italian Bel Canto method of singing. My work in her studio was indeed a splendid preparation for the work I did later with the Braggiottis in Florence, Italy. Madame Wood numbers among her pupils the daughter of Anton Hekking, the famous cellist, Madame Hildebrandt, a popular soloist in Europe, Fraulein Pfefferkorn,

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness. If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening purgative known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills. You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy or known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

the Danish singer, and many others of note.

I must not fail to mention an exceptionally interesting trip I had to Spreewald, a place about three hours distant from Berlin, and counted by many among Europe's most charming sights. I saw really little to compare with it in quaintness, beauty and general interest. It is a sort of rural Venice, with its myriads of canals, which wind through beautiful stretches of woods, pastures and lovely meadows. One sees absolutely nothing modern here, and nothing incongruous to the whole picturesque setting. The peasants wear a very quaint original costume and have preserved customs that are many generations old. One's means of conveyance is entirely by boat, and all day one is rowed among scenes that completely entrance and enrapture one with their quaintness and natural beauty. It is a trip that no one visiting Berlin should miss. It is strictly out of the beaten path, however, and the majority of tourists miss it.

Not long after this delightful experience a rare opportunity presented itself by which I was to enjoy a two months' auto trip through Germany, Holland, Belgium and France with a Mr. James Aborn, a musical student from New York City.

Even to begin to enumerate the many places of great interest that we visited would be folly. It was one round of delight from start to finish. Europe is the motorist's Happy Hunting Ground; the roads are generally excellent. What lessons we, in this part of the country, might take from the Germans and French in this line! But we are young, and have hardly had time yet to build solid permanent roads that are as smooth as a polished floor.

We visited art galleries, etc., galore, and made a specialty of cathedrals, visiting the great Cathedral towns of France, including Rouen, Amiens, and Rheims. We were nearly a week in Paris and vicinity, did Holland and Belgium very thoroughly, enjoyed the Rhine trip, especially a visit to Rolands Eck, the residence of my friend, Fraulein Seybt. From the magnificent estate where she lives, one has the most beautiful view to be had on the whole Rhine. At Cologne, of course, the great cathedral was the principal attraction. At Bonn there were many interesting sights, among which I think I enjoyed the birthplace of Beethoven most. At Eisenach I visited the immortal Bach's birthplace, and at Weimar I spent a number of hours at Liszt's home, where his old housekeeper tirelessly related anecdote after anecdote of the great master. She showed me all the priceless gifts that had been showered upon him by royal admirers, and even invited me to play upon his grand piano. At first it seemed like a desecration to do so, but something impelled me to play, and under the spell of my surroundings that seemed fairly permeated with the spirit of that marvelous personality, I finally began to improvise, and then I played his "Benediction of God in the Solitude." Meanwhile the old housekeeper was bending over the end of the big piano, listening to every tone, and when I had finished, with tears in her eyes, she said, "Das ist wirklich sehr schön. Das liegt sehr an der Kunst. Es ist mir schade dass Liszt nicht mehr lebt." Then she told me more of Liszt and his pupils; of the great musicals given there, and gave me several of his pictures, one of which she autographed.

I visited, also, the last resting place of many of the great masters of music. Especially interesting was the famous old Pere La Chaise in Paris, where so many famous musicians are buried. The grave of the great Chopin is here.

Our trip led us through much beautiful country. There is one section of Holland, particularly, which the average traveler does not see, and which is magnificent with its vast estates, rich old mansions, its wonderful grounds and forests. Then the sunny hills of La Belle France one never forgets, nor the beautiful Harz mountains and Thuringian forest.

I shall never be quite satisfied until I have seen more of Europe in this same ideal way.

Walnuts and Apricots Selling
This week W. D. Bowman sold his walnuts, getting 13 1/2 cents for best grade and 13 cents for next best. Several of the apricot growers are still holding their dried fruit. Mr. U. C. Holderman sold his dried fruit this week for 10 cents.

Bean harvesting is almost over on the ranch, and a few of the ranchers are through. There will be a big crop this season and equally good prices. The price will probably soon be away over 4 cents.

Mrs. Stevens' Dinner
Wednesday, Mrs. Sherman Stevens entertained at 1 o'clock dinner. Covers were laid for ten, Mrs. Krauss and Miss Krauss of San Francisco, Mrs. Jerome and Miss Jerome, Miss Rosa Boyd, Miss Vivian Clayton, Mrs. P. R. Reynolds, Mrs. Volney Tubbs and Mrs. C. E. Utt.

In Honor of Birthday
Thursday of this week was the 63rd birthday of Mr. John Holt. In honor of the occasion, several former neighbors and friends were invited in for the evening.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Feindelsen, Mr. and Mrs. Sparfield, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. George Poh, Mr. and Mrs. Prather and Mr. and Mrs. Baade of Santa Ana.

A most enjoyable time was had and many were the good wishes extended to the worthy host.

Mrs. Holt then served refreshments of sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cakes, serving on the card tables. Mr. Holt was presented with several very nice gifts in honor of his natal day.

Celebrated Tin Wedding

Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Adams entertained the members of the Bide-a-Wee Club with a dinner, in honor of the tenth anniversary of their wedding day.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lott, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Cood Adams, Mr. and Mrs. H. Roy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lu Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Will Thompson, and Mrs. Charles Bowman.

The dining room was decorated very tastefully in pink and white crepe myrtle, the pink color scheme being carried out even in the dainty place cards.

The date also happened to be Mrs. Byron Johnson's birthday, and the guests, while presenting the host and hostess with three lovely pieces of nickel ware, presented Mrs. Johnson with a birthday cake.

A social time of music and cards was enjoyed after dinner.

Supper and Dance

The young Fraternal Brotherhood Lodge is thriving well, every meeting night there being one or more candidates to be initiated. Thursday night, at the regular meeting, there were four candidates.

After lodge was closed the members and several of their invited friends enjoyed dancing until a late hour. Delicious and cooling refreshments of ice cream, cakes and bananas were served.

Mrs. Joe Metz furnished splendid music for the dancers.

W. C. T. U. Mid-summer Social

On Thursday afternoon, the members of the Tustin W.C.T.U. came together under the wide-spreading boughs of a friendly sycamore tree in Mrs. C. E. Utt's back yard. A goodly company of guests were present, adding to the pleasure of the occasion.

A piano, backed with greenery and gay curtains, and flanked on each side by ferns and other potted plants, a wide-spreading canvas dotted here and there with bright rugs, a table or two, and many chairs, made an inviting retreat from the afternoon sun.

The program was arranged by Mrs. Utt. It was a mothers' meeting, and the aspect of a mother's duty Mrs. Utt presented for consideration and discussion was: "Do mothers do too much for their children, and children too little for their mothers?" Mrs. Utt's forceful presentation of the subject was followed by general and interested discussion.

Other numbers on the program were:

Piano Solo—Gertrude Utt.

Poem by Margaret Sangster—Mrs. Utt.

Piano Duet—Mrs. Ebel and Mrs. J. O. Preble.

Song, "Garden of Roses"—Mrs. J. C. Stearns.

Recitation, "The Other Little Girl"—Dorothy Utt.

Song, "Silver Threads Among the Gold"—Mrs. Stearns.

Refreshments and a social hour followed the interesting program.

Birthday Party

Yesterday was the birthday of Mrs. Ellis Smith and her sister, Mrs. Freda Barnes, assisted by the members of the Wisteria Lodge, Pythian Sisters, had a surprise party for her last night. Mrs. Smith was completely surprised. Several nice gifts were taken by the young ladies of the lodge, but the best of all was a lovely cake adorned with twenty-five candles.

Games were played and everybody had a jolly time. Those present were Mrs. Freda Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Artz, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. George Pollard and daughter Jennie, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fuller, and Lloyd, Zelda and Elden Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Poole and son Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Road and son, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, Mrs. Graves and daughter Rachel; Misses Kate Hertzog, Grace and Maud Cole, Lucy Walker.

Dainty refreshments were served.

Delicately Formed

and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful toning to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.

Mrs. J. C. Stearns yesterday showed her appreciation of the generous assistance given her by the Tustin ladies after the burning of the Stearns home several weeks ago, by having an outdoor reception on the large back lawn of the C. E. Utt home. The lawn was beautifully arranged as it had been for the outdoor midsummer W.C.T.U. social recently given at the same place. Flowers, greenery, a piano banked effectively with flowers, rugs and easy chairs, made the lawn very inviting under the shade of the famous sycamore that holds sway there. Besides conversation and an impromptu program, delicious refreshments were served on small tables. There were some fifty ladies present to enjoy the pleasant event.

The musical program included a piano solo given by Edith Stearns, two vocal solos by Mrs. George Riehl, piano and violin duet by Edith and Eva Stearns, piano solo by Josie Stearns, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Stearns.

DEMOCRATIC CONVEN- TION HELD TODAY GOT FINLEY INTO RACE

turned by the primaries, were the same as those sent to the Republican convention. It seems that at the pri-maries the Republicans handed out printed slips with lists of delegates to all comers, and enough Democrats used the slips to name a Republican delegation, the Democrats having no list of their own at Olinda.

That precinct was the only one where there was a "mix-up." It was evidently the desire of the creden-tials committee to throw out the delegation from its list, and when the names were read—R. C. Annin, L. H. Perry, C. E. Tower, A. H. Brown, William Brown and L. C. Fortney—W. T. Brown of Fullerton stated he knew all the men and that they are all Re-publicans.

"I will state that none of those men are present here at this conven-tion, and are not attempting to sit as delegates. However, should any one of them come in and state that he is a Democrat, you can take his word for it, for everyone of them is abso-lutely honorable."

With this statement the list of dele-gates was adopted. Whether or not the Olinda list was thrown off the rolls did not officially appear.

Resolutions

The convention adopted resolutions in substance as follows:

1. We rejoice in the belated awak-ening of this state to the necessity of emancipation from corporate influ-ence, that the emancipation has long been prevented by the control of the Republican party by "machine politi-cians," that the surest step that can be taken to this emancipation is to elect Theodore A. Bell governor.
2. That the only way to stop graft is to elect public officials who will be guided by honesty and economy.
3. We favor permanent improve-ment of highways, but oppose a state bond issue and favor doing the work by county action.
4. We oppose bonding the state for ex-position purposes, and we oppose "the lavish and wasteful expenditure of public funds which has character-ized the various departments of the state."
5. We condemn the Reciprocal De-murrage Act, as favoring the railroads as against the shipper.
6. We endorse the direct primary, and favor an honest revision of it. We regret that some Democrats reg-istered as Republicans, thus defeating the purpose of the act. We believe in non-partisan voting at elections, but oppose the members of one party in-terfering with another party.
7. We believe that in the selection of county officers ability, experience and personal fitness should be con-sidered rather than party affiliation.
8. We endorse the candidates nomi-nated for county offices by the Demo-crats.

The resolution endorsing county candidates does not recognize the Re-publicans who received the Democrac-tic nomination at the primaries.

State Delegates

The ten delegates elected to the state convention to be held at Stock-ton on Sept. 5 are: At large—D. C. Pixley, G. B. Miller and T. M. Plinton. First Supervisorial district—Dr. H. S. Gordon. Second—W. H. Bentley. Third—L. P. Drake. Fourth—James Fullerton and V. L. Penland. Fifth—Jasper Leck and P. T. Adams.

Central Committee

Not all the precincts were repre-sented at the convention. Those represented elected county central committeemen as follows:
Anaheim No. 1, D. R. Brown; No. 2, H. G. Ames; Bolsa, H. Y. L. Harding; Buena Park, G. B. Miller; Delhi, O. A. Stewart; El Modena, R. K. Bishop; Fullerton No. 1, G. T. Tiley; No. 2, Richard Gregory; Garden Grove, D. W. McDannald; Newhope, J. C. Mc-Dowell; Newport, A. T. Cole; Olive, Ray Billingsley; Orange No. 2, J. E. Mallets; Santa Ana No. 2, J. A. Will-son; No. 5, M. A. Menges; No. 6, Tar-ver Montgomey; No. 7, W. L. Dug-gan; No. 8, C. E. Jackson; No. 9, G. S. Wilson; No. 10, M. Nisson; Silverado, J. E. Pleasants; Trabuco, W. E. Adkinson; Tustin, W. L. G. Haskins;

Westminster, W. H. Bentley; West Orange, J. A. Smiley.

Finley is Running

Dr. Menges moved that it be the sense of the convention that Col. S. H. Finley "get in and run," his name al-ready being on the ticket, and that the convention "pledge him its sup-port." The motion carried.

Col. Finley stated that recently he had made up his mind never to run for public office again, and he would not now take the nomination were he expected to make any very active fight, but in view of the past favors of the party he would deem it in-gratitude were he to fail to respond to the call of the party.

"I will do what I can to secure the election," said he.

Following the convention the cen-tral committee organized by electing W. L. Duggan, Santa Ana, chairman, and C. D. Overshiner, Santa Ana, sec-retary.

Conservatory Corner

Do you like to think? We do occasionally and therefore we've been thinking up all about the advantages that attach themselves to music conservatory training. But somehow we can't get through with the matter.

Now about Monday we are going to begin to enumerate our "thinks" along this line, and meantime we wish you would do a little thinking about this thing yourself. See how we compare.

We aim to have the open mind up here and want every hint and suggestion from you that will contribute to your welfare and ours in the management of "The Orange Co. Conservatory of Music." It is here for you so just keep up your interest in it. Let us just make it the very best we can. Make it the strongest factor in our community for progress along the higher educational lines of Music, Art, Expression. We shall try to do our share and feel you will too.

SocietyMrs. Wilhoite to Speak

Mrs. Lucy D. Wilhoite of Los Angeles, officer of the state W. C. T. U. and member and officer of the Woman's Prohibition party of California, will speak tomorrow evening at the Immanuel Baptist church, corner of Sixth and French streets. Mrs. Wilhoite is an interesting speaker and her subject will be "Political Christianity," dealing with Christian duty at the polls.

Kensington Society

The Long Island Kensington Society met last Thursday with Mrs. Cora Breeding and enjoyed another one of their all day meetings, nearly all of the members being present.

Mrs. Breeding was assisted by her sister, Miss Lizzie Cozad and served a lovely dinner at high noon. The day was spent with needle work and social conversation. The society had as their guest Mr. John Winters of Garden Grove. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jessie Kenyon, Sept. 29.

Farewell Party

Miss Grace Parker was the guest of honor at a party given last night by Mrs. Laurence Bristol at her home. The affair was given in anticipation of Miss Parker's early departure for Los Angeles to enter the California Hospital, where she will fit herself to be a trained nurse.

As the young matrons and girls present were all old time friends, the evening was a particularly happy one. A jolly little game in the nature of an alleged examination of Miss Parker's fitness to enter the hospital afforded much fun. Each girl propounded a question to Miss Parker, who answered it by drawing promiscuously from a little portfolio resembling a diploma, a slip of paper on which was written an answer which was as likely to be malapropos as not.

The dining table, prettily decorated with rich-hued merigolds, presented an inviting picture, and the young ladies found their places by means of a so-called "prescription" given each of them by the hostess. On finding the article prescribed, such as a bottle of peroxide or arnica, a box of medicated cotton, or some similar article, the guest knew she had succeeded in locating her place card. Refreshments were served in three courses, the final one, following the ices, being boxes of tiny round pill-shaped candies.

Those at the table besides the hostess, Mrs. Bristol, were the guest of honor, Miss Grace Parker, Misses Bertha Whitehead, Mamie Winans, Sallie Catland, Hazel Thomas, Marguerite Smith, Hope Trickey, Viola Hill, Mesdames Jack Coleman and Mac Robbins.

Babies Were Guests

Two little six-months-old children, Marian Elizabeth Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Todd of this city, and Burton Finley Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henderson of Los Angeles, were the guests of honor yesterday at a noon dinner party given at the home of the grandparents of Burton Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr of Orange. Other guests were the parents of the babies and the grandparents of little Miss Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Pirie of Orange.

Off for the Beach on Vacation

Miss Margaret Lacy and Miss J. Frances Emans went to Laguna this afternoon for a week's stay during the vacation of Orange County Business College, which closed its summer term yesterday. These have both been teachers in the business college the past year and will have the same positions next year, Miss Emans beginning her second year and Miss Lacy her eleventh year as instructor in this school. Besides these, two other teachers (both men) will be employed.

President McCormac will be in the office every day next week for the enrollment of students for the fall term, which opens the first Monday in September. He reports many enrollments already entered and prospects good for a much larger attendance the coming year than ever before.

The entire set of fixtures formerly used by the First National Bank of Santa Ana have been purchased by the business college and are being installed this week for use in their business department. This will make it one of the best equipped business schools in the state. New furniture is also being installed in other departments of the school.

Birthday Party

Mrs. John Sauers of 406 South Sycamore street, entertained twenty-one children in Birch Park Friday afternoon in honor of her little daughter Laurene's sixth birthday.

There was in evidence a beautiful birthday cake, bearing six candles, and marked with Laurene's name and the dates, "1904 and 1910," designed in pink. Of gifts there were many and pretty ones from the children, with good wishes for many more happy birthdays.

After the enjoyment of several merry games in the park, ice cream and cake were served to the little guests. A pretty feature of the refreshment period was the throwing by Mrs. Sauers of pop-corn balls inclosed in pink net, among the little folks, who had a jolly scramble in catching them.

The young guests at this charming birthday party included the following: Stuart Ritzer, Cecil Suddaby, Lester and Georgia Moore, Kenneth and Donald Horton, Lorene Cannon, Carol and Alice Eaton, Marjorie and Francis Edmonds, Adelaide Spencer, Mildred Whitson, Evelyn and Beverly Trickey, Clover Johnson, Helen Trickey, Ruth and Geraldine Newman, Jean Winslow.

Christian Endeavor Social

After a satisfactory business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church last night, at which reports of the standing committees were heard, the young people had a delightful social evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rankin, 815 Spurgeon street.

A noticeable feature of the event was the presence of many young people of the church who are not members of the society. There were forty or more who participated in the social pleasures of the evening. The serving of ice cream, cake and wafers was a hospitable touch to the event.

Baracas Entertain

The Baraca Class of the First Methodist church last night entertained informally in the church, being assisted in their social duties by Mesdames Winbiger and Wehrly and Miss Cubblison.

Probably forty people, including two classes of the Sunday school, were present and the evening was spent in purely a social way, an attractively served supper completing the hospitality offered by the young men. Red geraniums were arranged in tasteful table decorations.

PERSONALS

Miss Grace Parker leaves next week for Los Angeles where she will enter the California Hospital to become a trained nurse.

Miss Jane Humphrey has returned from an all summer's stay at Eureka, Humboldt county, Cal., having had many delightful experiences. She is pleased to be in Santa Ana again.

SANITARIUM PLANS ANAHEIM MATURING

Buena Park Rancher Raises a Bumper Corn Crop—Beale Returns

Anaheim Plain Dealer: B. T. Beale returned Saturday from a seven weeks' eastern trip, during which time he visited Washington, New York, Chicago, Kansas City and other places of interest. Although having had a very pleasant trip, Mr. Beale was extremely glad to get back.

Arthur Roberts at Westminster met with a serious accident last week. While helping operate a hay baler his right foot became caught in the machinery and was badly hurt. It is not yet known whether or not amputation will be necessary.

Arrangements are going ahead rapidly for the new sanitarium, and it is expected that plans will shortly be ready to submit to contractors for bids on construction. The selection of a site from among the several that have been offered is now the only matter occasioning delay. The promoters of the enterprise very wisely intend to take their time in the making of this important step and are weighing the advantages offered by the different sites very carefully.

What is considered the finest field of corn ever grown in Southern California and declared by middle west growers to excel the best they ever saw in Iowa and thereabouts, will be harvested this week by its grower, A. Schumacher, at Buena Park. The corn was planted over 75 acres April 6. It is now estimated that the yield will exceed 2000 sacks. Mr. Schumacher returned the middle of the week from a several days' vacation at Catalina and is now training down for the big harvest he has ahead.

VETERANS BROKE CAMP YESTERDAY

Comrades Bade Each Other Good-bye—More Than 1000 Veterans Registered

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 27.—

The last day of the encampment of 1910 of the Southern California Veterans' Association in this city was marked by the most cordial greetings between the former soldiers, for many of whom this may have been the last days of comradeship, as each year their numbers grow less and less.

Hearty expressions of thanks and good will for the city of Huntington Beach for its cordial welcome of the veterans and their entertainment while here, for the Huntington Beach News for courtesies extended, and for various members of the ladies' auxiliary societies, were unanimously adopted. Many of those in attendance left for their homes last night, and today the big tent city will be practically deserted.

Except, perhaps, for the rather warm debate of the proposed pension legislation last Wednesday evening, all the proceedings of the association have been marked by the utmost harmony and good fellowship, and even that discussion left no ill-feeling. More than a thousand veterans registered at the encampment and the number of members of the ladies' auxiliary societies present was unusually large.

Card of Thanks

Mr. Willis Faust and family wish to thank the members of the Rebekah, Eastern Star, Ladies' Aid, Woman's Relief Corps and many friends who were so kind and thoughtful of Mrs. Faust during her long illness and death.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Reports of the Colorado apple crop are at hand. They have been coming in fragmentarily in the past two weeks, and a final total of them has now been obtained. The crop to be shipped will amount to 3900 cars. 3900 cars will come from two districts, the one in direct connection with Los Angeles. The towns which are to supply a good part of the Colorado apples for this section are Canon City, Rockyford, Fowler and Manzanola. There are 1000 cars in sight from these places. The other producing section comprises the orchards around Grand Junction, Palis and Clifton. There are about three times as many apples grown in the central part of this state, and they are already supplying Los Angeles. It is expected nearly 1000 cars of apples will be handled in this city from the Watsonville district. Some Oregon apples are also shipped here. The total number of cars will run about 100 from the northern state, according to present estimates.

An advance in the price of honey was reported. Extracted water white is up to 9½ cents on the best. Same old comb honey is quoted at 18.

BEGINS USE OF NEW ROAD

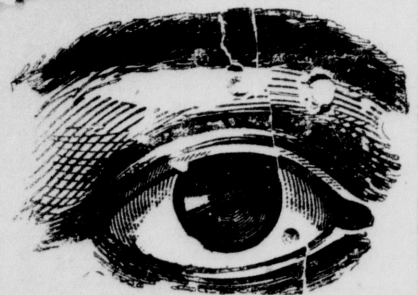

Santa Fe Today Runs via Placencia Instead of via Orange

Los Angeles Times: Beginning tomorrow the Santa Fe will make several important changes in its local passenger service. All trains between this city and San Bernardino operating over what is known as fourth district, will be run via Placencia instead of Orange.

To car for the districts which are left out by the new arrangement, a triangular service taking in Fullerton, Santa Ana and Richfield will be inaugurated.

The schedules of nearly all of the trains running through the fourth district have been altered, in most instances the running time being slightly reduced and the starting time at the various stations along the route being advanced from ten to thirty minutes.

Help wanted at Taylor's Cannery, East Fourth street.

COUNT OF BUCKS IS NOW EIGHTEEN

Few Days Ago Ed. Adkinson
Killed Fine Deer Near the Old Fox Place

Deputy Game Commissioner W. K. Robinson states that to the best of his information there have been eighteen bucks killed in his territory, which comprises all of Orange county and a small part of the northern end of San Diego county, since the season opened. Nearly all of these were killed within the first week following the open season. At that time the mountains were full of hunters, and the bucks that were not killed were made exceedingly fond of the thick brush. Consequently the later hunters have had little luck. A few days ago Ed. Adkinson of Trabuco Canyon brought down a fine buck near the old Fox place above Bell Canyon.

LAGUNA BEACH HAD GAY TIME THIS WEEK

Visit Pretty Beach

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 26.—Numerous social events have pleasantly occupied the time this week, beginning with Monday, when a large number of hotel guests took a trip to San Juan Capistrano and visited the old mission. They stopped at different points of interest along the way. Tuesday evening Miss Katherine Edwards entertained at bridge whist, Mrs. A. C. Scales winning the only prize, a consolation. A dainty collation was served at the close of the games. Miss Edwards will entertain another party of friends this evening with progressive whist. Mrs. J. S. Wood of San Bernardino was hostess at bridge whist yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Adeline Johnson of Riverside winning the prize.

The hotel was nearly deserted Wednesday, the guests spending an enjoyable day at Three Arches, about five miles above Laguna. Two members of the party left camp early and hunted along the way, the doves and rabbits, making an appetizing adjunct to the lunch. The party included Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Scales, Mr. and Mrs. Carew, Mrs. Adeline Johnson, Mrs. G. W. Kellogg, Mrs. F. C. Simpson, Mrs. Charlotte Smith, Misses Tucker, Dairsson, Lyon, Colwell, Messrs. T. F. Doyle, Burrows and Brandenburg, Olive and Alonzo Lopez.

Music was enjoyed in the hotel parlor Wednesday afternoon, those participating in the program being Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rice, Mrs. Alba J. Padgham, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. J. S. Wood.

Rev. and Mrs. Porter pleasantly entertained a few friends at the Chapman cottage on the cliffs Tuesday evening, the time being pleasantly spent with conversation and refreshments.
